Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(4), the following local criminal and civil rules are hereby adopted as part of the Local Rules of Practice for the District Court of Guam, effective April 30, 2004:

CrimR 58.1    Matters before the Magistrate Judge.

For all criminal matters assigned or referred to the Magistrate Judge, the procedures set forth in General Order 04-00016 shall apply. The Magistrate Judge shall have the inherent power of a judicial officer to implement and enforce his own orders and to regulate proceedings before him, to the extent permitted by law.

LR 72.1        Magistrate Judges; Pretrial Orders.

The Magistrate Judge of this Court is authorized to perform all of the duties and functions prescribed and authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 636, or any other statutes or Federal Rules of Procedure which authorize the Magistrate Judge to perform judicial duties or functions, as set forth in General Order No. 04-00016, or any successor General Order. The Magistrate Judge shall have the inherent power of a judicial officer to implement and enforce his own orders and to regulate proceedings before him, to the extent permitted by law.

LR 73.1        Magistrate Judges; Trial by Consent and Appeal Options.

The Magistrate Judge of this Court is authorized to perform all of the duties and functions prescribed and authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 636, or any other statutes or Federal Rules of Procedure which authorize the Magistrate Judge to perform judicial duties or functions, as set forth in General Order No. 04-00016, or any successor General Order. The Magistrate Judge shall have the inherent power of a judicial officer to implement and enforce his own orders and to regulate proceedings before him, to the extent permitted by law.

SO ORDERED this 30th day of April, 2004.

JOHN S. UNPINGCO
Chief Judge
